FYI Dan. Attached you'll find a picture of damage done to EaCa Alley. I'm working with my security lead to see how we should address this. I suppose this is another argument for why gating the alley is a good idea.

Hi Steve, our maintenance crew found this damage to EaCa at around 8 am this morning and have since cleaned it up. As you can see from the photo, a few planters were destroyed including some heaters. I am not sure if anything else was damaged. How do you suggest we handle this? I suspect this could warrant a police report. At minimum, the property owner needs to be informed (they've yet to see the damage). We aren't totally sure whose property was destroyed.

Hi Dave,

I hate to reach out to you with unpleasant news, but attached you'll find a photo of some damage we found in EaCa Alley at around 8 am this morning. Our maintenance crew cleaned up the mess, which you'll see in the second photo.

I just wanted to make sure you're aware in case the owner of the property would like to file a police report. I have also notified Dan Halden. If anything, I hope this is more ammunition in support of gating the alley.

Best regards,

Hi Matthew,

Did anything end up transpiring as a result of this incident?

Thanks,

Hi Dan,

Not that I'm aware. I advised David Gajda that any police reports would have to be made by the owner of the property that was damaged. We do not know who the property belonged to.

Matthew
